

Chapter 4: Using singular and plural in sentences.

Directions: Each Latin sentence has an English verb, noun, or adjective in parentheses.

1) Give the correct Latin form. 2) Translate.

Remember:

Singular or Plural

Subject, Complement, Direct Object

Example:

(girls) fabulas narrant.

Answer: puellae - The girls tell stories.

1. pueri ad ludum (run).

Hint: (run) is 3rd conjugation.

2. (fields) magni sunt.

3. tandem Horatia (friends) videt.

4. fessi pueri in casā (sleep).

Do Now

5. (many farmers) ad agrum veniunt.

6. filiae diu (work).

7. feminae casam (approach).

Hint: (approach) is 3rd conjugation.

8. (we see) Argum.

9. Flaccus (big field) curat.

10. Scintilla cibum (to the women) mittit.

11. (the sons) colonos iuvant.

12. tandem puer (home) procedit.

13. (many friends) in ludo adsunt.